CITY OF ALAMEDA EXPANDED PARATRANSIT PROGRAM

The City of Alameda Expanded Paratransit Program/Taxi Program is designed to supplement and complement the services provided by East Bay Paratransit (EBP). The program offers transportation opportunities for seniors, as well as those with disabilities. The City of Alameda has contracted with Friendly Transportation to provide these services using both sedans and lift-equipped vans. Friendly Transportation is currently licensed to provide trips throughout Alameda County and many other Bay Area locations. Services may include the following:

Supplemental Taxi Service: This service is available to Alameda residents who are certified to use EBP service and provides transportation for Alameda residents living outside of the EBP service area (e.g., areas of Bay Farm Island), need to return home from a medical appointment (MRTIP), or need transportation to or from a critical medical appointment (e.g., dialysis, chemotherapy, etc.) during the EBP 21-day application processing period.

Premium Taxi Service: This service is open to EBP customers, as well as seniors who are:

- *70+, without a CA Driver's License; or
- *75+, whether or not you have a disability

To receive additional information about these programs, contact the Mastick Office at 747-7506.
